TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

THE VOTING IN VARIOUS STATES.

Much Interest Taken and Heavy Votes Generally Polls—The Outlook in the Different Fields—A Quiet Day's Voting.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Thirty-two election districts out of 688 gave Carr, Republican, for Secretary of State, 3,443; Maynard, Democrat, 2,601; Gates, Prohibitionist, 50; Beecher, (G. A. R.), 25. Out of the registration of 183,111, the vote will not exceed 155,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Democratic majority in this city will be about 40,000, except that of Maynard for Secretary of State, who has been cut by the liquor interest.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The Democrats now claim that Hendrix, Democrat, is elected Mayor over Low, Republican, by 3,000 majority, and that Daggett, Republican, is defeated in his own ward for the Senate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The apparent majority for the Democrats on the State ticket is 47,000, except Maynard who runs 10,000 behind.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 7.—One hundred and seven election districts give Hendrix 24,022; Low, 24,150.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 7.—This city gives about 3,000 Republican majority. Onondaga county is estimated at 4,000 majority. Senator McCarthy, Republican, is re-elected by a reduced majority. All the Republican candidates for the Assembly are elected. The Germans cut the Democratic State ticket severely.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—It appears certain that the Democratic State ticket is elected by a majority of from 25,000 to 40,000. The State Senate is probably Republican and the Assembly still doubtful.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—At the Cooper Union it was announced that the Democratic State ticket, with the exception of Maynard, would be elected by about 30,000 majority. At Tammany Hall, dispatches were read stating that the State ticket would be elected by 30,000 majority, with the exception of Maynard, who was probably defeated. The announcement was received with great cheering, after which John Kelly made a speech. Hendrix, Democrat, it was stated was elected Mayor of Brooklyn by 3,000 majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Republican State Committee claims to be sure of 19 out of 32 Senators and 70 out of 128 Assemblymen, a gain of 5 in the Senate and 28 in the Assembly. They claim that Carr leads the ticket by from 15,000 to 25,000. They claim the rest of the State ticket by from 5,000 to 8,000 majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—Thirty-nine cities and towns give Robinson, 11,784; Butler, 12,716. The same places last year gave Butler, 11,031; Bishop, 11,003; a Republican gain of 2,163. Fall River, New Bedford and Waltham are included. The total vote will be over 300,000, 30,000 larger than ever before cast. The Democratic majority in Fall River is 400 against over 1,100, last year.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—Returns from 105 towns and precincts give Butler, 56,751; Robinson, 56,150. At this rate Robinson carries the State by 10,000 to 15,000. Butler's plurality in Boston is 6,511, against nearly 14,000 in 1882. The returns from the State show uniform and large Republican gains and plainly indicate Robinson's election. Chairman Lodge says that the returns more than sustain the canvas of the Republican State Committee upon which he gave Robinson 18,000 majority. In Boston the Republican gains are larger than anticipated. Butler scarcely holds his own in wards where he is strongest. The city of Worcester shows a Republican gain of at least 800, Robinson carrying the city by from 600 to 800 majority on a large vote. Butler carried the city last year by 1,300. The balance of the Republican ticket is elected by a tremendous majority, probably 20,000 or 40,000.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—Chelsea—Robinson, 2,255; Butler, 1,750; a Republican gain.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—The Legislature will stand as follows: Senate, Republican, 22; Democrat, 18; a Democratic gain of 1. House, Republican, 175; Democrat, 65; a Republican gain of 18. The Democrats have elected two members of the Executive Council, a gain of 1.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—No words can describe the intensity of the excitement in this city over the election returns. Newspaper rows on Washington Street from the Old South Church to Dock Square a distance of a quarter of a mile, were literally packed all the evening. All transportation was discontinued and it was impossible to force one's way through the crowd. The stereotypical bulletins of the newspapers were greeted by continuous cheers and hisses, yet there was no disorder or lawlessness. Faneuil Hall was packed and speeches were made, at piecemeal intervals between cheering, by Lieutenant Governor Ames, Congressman Horr, of Michigan, Orlando Briggs, of New York, and others. Candidates Robinson and Butler remained at their homes in Chicopee and Lowell, respectively.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Two hundred and thirty-three towns and cities, including Boston complete give Butler 132,355; Robinson, 14,971. The vote of these towns in 1882 was Butler, 118,219; Robinson, 101,565. This ratio continued throughout the State would give Butler a total of 150,000, against Robinson's 100,000, showing a gain for Butler over last year's vote of 12 percent, and a gain for Robinson over Bishop's vote of 31 per cent.

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 7.—Sixty-one towns in Massachusetts, including Lynn, Lowell, Fall River, Taunton, Newburyport and Fitchburg, give Robinson 21,878; Butler 23,528. Majority for Robinson

3,200. Lowell gives Butler 1002 majority against 1527 last year.

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 7.—One hundred and forty-two towns and cities, including Boston, give Butler, 90,800; Robinson, 95,007. The same towns last year gave Butler 86,668; Bishop, 70,273. The total vote at this ratio will be Butler 156,000; Robinson, 160,000. The towns to be heard from are mainly Republican. The vote of Boston is: Butler, 32,405; Robinson, 25,964. Total, 58,419. Butler's plurality 6,511; plurality last year, 14,016.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Following is the vote of the cities of the State: Boston—Butler, 32,405; Robinson, 25,964; Republican gain of 7,505. Springfield—Robinson, 3,227; Butler, 2,859; Republican gain of about 900. Fall River—Butler, 3,507; Robinson, 3,112; Republican gain of 600. New Bedford—Robinson, 2,549; Butler, 1,717; a large Republican gain. Newburyport—Butler, 1,855; Robinson, 1,043; Republican gain. Taunton—Robinson, 2,083; Butler, 1,836; a Republican gain. Fitchburg—Butler, 1,100; Robinson, 1,495; a Republican gain. Salem—Robinson, 2,230; Butler, 2,203; a large Republican gain. Gloucester—Robinson, 1,191; Butler, 1,473. Lynn—Robinson, 3,894; Butler, 4,711. Cambridge—Robinson, 3,966; Butler, 4,003; a Republican gain of several hundred. Holyoke—Robinson, 1,319; Butler, 1,511; a Republican gain of several hundred. Worcester—Robinson, 5,909; Butler, 5,148; a Republican gain of over 1,000. Somerville—Butler, 1,600; Robinson, 2,201; a Republican gain of several hundred.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—One hundred and ninety-one towns and cities, including Boston complete, give Butler, 115,709; Robinson, 117,360. The same towns last year gave Butler 103,127; Bishop, 87,591. At this ratio the total vote will be Butler, 156,000; Robinson, 160,500.

VIRGINIA.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 7.—This city has gone Democratic by 771 majority; a Democratic gain of 250. Alexandria county give the Fusionists 97 plurality.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 7.—The election passed off quietly and the largest vote ever cast in Norfolk county was polled. The total count is as follows: Whites, 2,493; blacks, 2,456. Norfolk is conceded to the Readjusters by a majority of 350. Nearly 400 whites were unable to vote on account of Readjuster Judges voting blacks slow all day.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 7.—J. S. Barbour, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, claims that the Democrats have carried the State on the popular vote by more than 10,000 majority, and that the Democrats will have a majority of at least eight in the lower House and two or three in the Senate.

RICMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—The Democratic majority in this city is 2,411. Thirteen cities in the State all show Democratic gains except Norfolk.

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 7.—Dispatches received at the Fusion headquarters here up to the hour of closing the polls show that the election throughout the State passed off quietly with no serious trouble at any point, and that a very large vote had been polled. The returns are slow in coming in.

RICMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—So far as known the election in the State passed off with remarkable freedom from all trouble. The vote polled is large and so much heavier than it has ever been since the formation of the Readjuster party, that comparisons likely to indicate the general result are impossible and the entire vote of counties and senatorial districts will be necessary to show result. In Richmond City everything passed off quietly and the Democrats carry it, but the Readjuster gains are considerable. This county, Henrico, elects a Readjuster to the House by 220 majority.

RICMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—The indications are that the Democrats have carried the State. It is estimated that the Democratic majority in this city will be larger than ever before. The following cities give Democratic majorities: Portsmouth, 35; Staunton, 321; Alexandria, 631; Fredericksburg, 291; Lynchburg, 400. General Wickham is elected State Senator over Colonel Jones, the Readjuster candidate.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 7.—A very full vote was polled, but no disorder. In Spotsylvania, Bailey, Democrat, is probably elected to the Senate by a small majority.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 7.—City of Lynchburg gives majority of 376 for the Democrats. A large Democratic gain. The county is Democratic by about 1,000.

RICMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—Official returns from eighteen precincts in this city and estimated from three precincts show, out of a total vote of 13,000, an average majority of 2,800 for Democratic candidates for the Legislature. Scattering returns from various sections of the State show a large vote and Democratic gains. Manchester gives a Democratic majority of 440, a Democratic gain of 160. Charlotte and Hamilton counties, which were carried in the last election by the Coalitionists, are reported as Democratic. In the Chesterfield district the Democrats have made large gains. The Democrats expect to have a majority in the Senate and probably in the House. Neither side, however, has yet received information enough to justify any positive statement.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—Returns are coming in very slowly. Six precincts in this city give McLane, Democrat, for Governor, 1833 majority over Holton, Republican.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 7.—McLane, Democrat, is elected by about 8,000 majority. The Republicans claim a majority in the Senate.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 7.—Governor Hubbard and the rest of the State Republican State ticket elected by last years majorities, 20,000 to 30,000.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 7.—A very large vote was polled throughout the State. Biermann, Democrat nominee for Governor, who is a Norwegian, polled the almost solid vote of that nationality, and at the close of the polls the Democratic State Committee claims his election by 2,000 majority.

NEBRASKA.

LINCOLN, NEB., Nov. 7.—The contest for Judge of the Supreme Court was very animated, but a light vote was polled for the Regents of the University. The Republicans have without doubt carried the latter, but it is probable the Democrats and Anti-Monopolists have elected the Supreme Judges. There were no disturbances throughout the State.

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 7.—The indications are that James W. Savage, Democratic and Anti-monopolist candidate for Supreme Judge, has defeated Reese, Republican, by 5,000 majority. The Republican managers, however, claim Reese's election by small gains. Nothing definite will be known for several days. This city, usually strongly Republican, gives Savage over 1,000 majority. The election was quiet and no disturbances are reported from any quarters.

PENNSYLVANIA.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY, Pa., Nov. 7.—Taggart, Democrat, majority 250; Republican gain of 418.

TOGA, COUNTY, Pa., Nov. 7.—Niles, 1800 majority; Swesy, 1800 majority. Democratic gain of 424.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 7.—Snyder county, Republican majority, 350; Democratic gain, 360. Monroe county, Democratic majority, 2350, a gain of 67. Columbia county, Democratic majority, 230. Pike county, Democratic majority, 850; Democratic gain, 56. Fourth District, Delaware county, gives 139 Republican majority. Lock Haven, Democratic majority, 20; Republican gain, 123. Fayette county, Ingram, Republican, elected Judge. Centre county, fifteen districts give Republicans 1233; Democrats, 1331; Democratic gain, 90. Fulton county, Democratic majority, 300; Republican gain, 30.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 7.—Leon Abbott, Democrat, is certainly elected Governor over Jonathan Dixon, Republican. The Republicans now concede a majority of 3,000 for Abbott.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 7.—Returns from surrounding towns indicate that the Republicans have carried both branches of the Legislature. This city elects the full Republican ticket for Senator and Representatives by decisive majorities, and a gain of 1,000. In the county, Spaulding, Republican, is elected Sheriff.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 7.—Out of the twelve Senators elected to-day are enough Republicans to make the Senate Republican by a two-thirds majority. The majority in the House of Representatives is from forty to fifty Republican. There have been five Republican and three Democratic Sheriffs elected.

MISSISSIPPI.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 7.—A correspondent at Vicksburg, Miss., telegraphs as follows: The returns from the election are very meagre. In this city and county there was no party ticket, the Executive Committees of each party having decided to make no nomination. The indications point to the re-election of Beck, the present Sheriff and Fitzgerald, District Attorney. Three members of the Legislature were voted for. Miller, Democrat, and two colored Republicans will be elected. In Hinds county the Fusion ticket will be elected over the People's ticket made up of dissatisfied Republicans, Greenbackers and Democrats, by a handsome majority. The only disturbance reported, occurred at Hazlehurst in Calhoun county where Prince Matthews, ex-Sheriff of that county, who has been regarded as a most notorious and disturbing element in politics in that county, was shot and instantly killed at 5 o'clock. The Sheriff of the county called in preserving the peace of the County, and the Capital Guards of Jackson were ordered to the scene of the disturbance. The Governor accompanied the troops.

LOUISIANA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—J. D. Warren, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, telegraphed the following: "Both branches of the Legislature have been carried by the Republicans. The Senate will have 18 Republican members sure, and probably 20. Carr, for Secretary of State, is undoubtedly elected. The balance of the State ticket is in doubt, with chances in favor of the Republicans."

THE VERY LATEST ELECTION NEWS.

RICMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—Democrats estimate their majority in the State at 20,000 and claim both branches of the Legislature by twenty-five on joint ballot. Malone organ in this city concedes the Legislature to the Democrats by a small majority.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 7.—Latest returns increase Abbott's Democrat majority for Governor to about 7,000. The Legislature, which has to elect a United States Senator, is Democratic by eleven votes on joint ballot. The Republicans have one majority in the Senate.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The latest election returns show that the Republicans have carried Pennsylvania by fully 20,000 majority, electing the entire city ticket by the same majority, except Jeffries, Controller, who has but 1,200 majority.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 7.—Returns are incomplete, but a very fair estimate can be made showing the composition of the next Legislature. Seven of each party held over in the Senate and the election Tuesday will give the Republicans eleven and the Democrats ten members of that body. The Republicans have twenty-four Assemblymen and the Democrats thirty-six.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 7.—Election returns are exceedingly slow in coming in. The interest centers upon Hinds, Madison, Calhoun, Monroe and Adams counties, where the Democrats and Republicans united on a fusion ticket, opposing the Independents, representing the Chalmers movement. The indications point to the success of the fusion ticket in consequence of the killing of Matthews at Hazlehurst. Fearing a riot, the Governor ordered the Light Guards of Jackson to Hazlehurst, although latest information shows that all is quiet.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from 334 cities and towns give Robinson a plurality over Butler of 7,646.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 7.—Mayor Low's majority over Hendrix, Democrat, for Mayor of this city is now given at 1,940, actual count.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 7.—Latest advances now place the Democratic majority in this State at twenty thousand. The Democrats have the Legislature by twenty-two on joint ballot.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The most authentic figures give Carr, Republican, for Secretary of State, a good majority. The rest of the ticket is doubtful. The Albany Journal says there is a strong probability of Davenport, for Controller, and Russell, for Attorney-General, being elected. Returns as to the next Legislature as far as received show Senate will stand twenty Republicans and twelve Democrats. Assembly: Republicans, seventy-five; Democrats, fifty-four, thus promising a Republican United States Senator to succeed Lapham.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The Journal this evening estimates the Legislature as follows: Senate, Republicans, 27; Democrats, 13. A Democratic loss of four. House, Republicans, 137; Democrats, 93. Independents to hear from, nine.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 7.—McLane's majority is now estimated at from 10,000 to 12,000. The Democrats will have a majority of two in the Senate. The House will be strongly Democratic. Altogether Democrats have made a clean sweep of the State.

HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 7.—The Republicans have four majority in the Senate. The House now stands: Republicans 157, Democrats 93.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Democratic State ticket, with the exception of Maynard for Secretary of State, is elected by 10,000. Carr, Republican, Secretary of State, is elected by a majority of 16,498.

JAY GOULD'S BURIAL PLACE.

A Simple and Impressive Tomb Built in Woodlawn Cemetery.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Gould mausoleum, in Woodlawn Cemetery, is so far on the way to completion that on Thursday last the final roof slab was set in place. Work on the interior decoration has been begun. Its form is that of an Ionic temple, raised on a platform three steps above the level of the surrounding ground. The platform is a mass of concrete that makes it practically a single stone eight feet in thickness by thirty-six or more in length and twenty-eight in width. The structure is wholly of finely hammered Western granite, without a single band or panel or other surface that is polished. Thirty graceful columns, eleven feet high by thirteen inches in diameter, surround the mausoleum and add to the support of its massive roof. Space for twenty bodies is afforded within. In the front of the tomb will be a bronze door of Grecian design, pierced so as to afford a view of the interior. A window representing a choir of angels will occupy the space now left in the rear wall. It is understood that the inner walls will be of delicately shaded marbles, arranged so as to present simple and pleasing efforts.

No brick or metal is employed in the construction of the tomb, excepting the bronze doors and the necessary lead in the window. It stands in the center of a circular plot of three or four acres on the highest ground in the cemetery, in Lawn avenue, near Central Avenue, and is surrounded only by grass, not a single tree or shrub as yet rising on this ground.

THE PRINCETON BOY MURDER.

A Widow and the Lad's Father Arrested on Suspicion of the Crime.

PRINCETON, Wis., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Ellen Long, a widow, and L. S. Whittemore, the father of the boy found in the river with his throat cut, have been arrested for the murder. The detectives who took the case had their suspicions turned to Mrs. Long because of the rumors that she had once attempted to poison Whittemore's wife and failed. In searching her house they found bloody clothes which she had been wearing up to the time of the murder, and a butcher knife and two razors stained with blood. In a well on her premises was found a club with blood marks on it. The neighbors say a criminal intimacy has existed between the widow and Whittemore, and that it was known to his eleven-year-old son, who was probably thus disposed of to stop a scandal. The boy was missing for ten days, but the father made but little effort to find him.

The theory is that the boy was killed by Mrs. Long in her cellar, and that the father carried the body to the river and hid it in the place where he pretended to first discover it ten days later. Mrs. Long is a daughter of ex-County Judge A. H. Myers, and was at one time considered an estimable woman. The above fact, however, which have in substance, been already presented in these dispatches, remain unrefuted and point to her as one of the blackest-hearted criminals on record.

THEATRICAL ROW.

A Manager's Forgetfulness Liable to Be Expensive.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 7.—Facts developed indicate that there will be a lively scene at Hooley's Theater next Sunday. Last March Hooley booked Jannaschek for the coming week. A month later, in a moment of forgetfulness, he booked the Hanlon Brothers for the same period. When he recently discovered his mistake he tried to get out of it, but without avail. The Hanlon Brothers and Jannaschek's agents are now in town and both will appear at Hooley's on Sunday and demand possession.

It is the talk in Washington that John R. McLean is really a candidate for the U. S. Senate. The friends of Pendleton and Thurman are disposed to unite, with the understanding that if Pendleton is elected to the Senate, Thurman is to have a clear track for the Presidency, while, if Thurman goes to the Senate, Pendleton is to be pushed for the Presidency. Payne is considered a mere figure-head.

The Utility of the Electric Light.

While electric lights of the incandescent systems were exhibited many years ago, they have only been brought into practical and commercial perfection within the past three or four years. For street lighting the incandescent system is far superior to any other method of artificial illumination, and lamps of this kind are being rapidly placed upon the principal streets of all the large cities of the world. These lamps, yielding a flood of light equal to 1,500 to 2,000 candles, are displacing the gas lamps of from twelve to sixteen candle lamp power, the light from one of the electric lamps of the first class being equal to that given by 125 gas lamps.

It is now noted that one of the things most remarkable in the out-door appearance of New York in the evening is the glowing splendor of the illumination of the streets and public squares by the electric light.

Madison and Union Squares are now lighted by six arc lamps of the Brush system, of 6,000 candle power each, grouped in a lantern and suspended from a mast 175 feet in height. This concentration of the lights illuminates a large area of the city around each of the parks.

The town of Wabash, Indiana, was the first to light its streets by this system. Four arc lights of 3,000 candle power each, placed on an iron flag-staff on the dome of the courthouse, at a height of about one hundred and thirty feet above the ground are sufficient for a general illumination of an area from one-half to three-quarters of a mile in every direction. By placing a sufficient number of powerful electric lights upon towers high enough, it is, no doubt, possible to produce an amount of light that would practically be as efficient as daylight for the lighting of all spaces within a reasonable distance of such towers.

This is the plan that has been proposed for the lighting of the Capitol and its surroundings at Washington. It is proposed to place upon the dome of the Capitol, and upon six towers surrounding it, at a distance of 1,000 feet, no less than 450 electric lights, each of 6,000 candle-power, or a total light of 2,700,000 candle-power—equal to 200,000 four-foot gas-burners. The effect of such an enormous massing of light at such a distance above the ground and surrounding buildings, would produce a surprising effect, and within a considerable area would, no doubt, be practically equal to daylight.

For lighting large areas indoors the arc system is equally as efficient. Thus the dining room of the Continental Hotel at Philadelphia was formerly lighted by 144 gas burners. These were replaced by two arc lamps of the Brush system, and much better illumination was secured. The Grand Pacific Hotel at Chicago replaced 571 gas burners with sixteen arc electric lamps. Similar lights are used in the Hotel Brunswick, Gilsey House, Westminster Hotel, Sturtevant House, and other New York hotels.

As to comparative danger from accidental fires from the electric light, gas, oil, etc., the reports of the Board of Fire Commissioners of London show that, of 1,991 fires, from all causes, 149 were attributable to candles, 210 to gas, 149 to lamps, and sixty-four to matches. None reported from the electric light. Boston: Fifty-one from lamps, twenty from gas, seventy-nine from matches. None reported from the electric light.

ENGLAND'S HANGMAN.

First Artistic Job of Mr. Marwood's Follower.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Bartholomew Binns, the present English Calcraft and Marwood's successor as public hangman, to-day gave his initial performance in his new profession. Harvey Powell, the Balham murderer, was the subject, and the execution took place at Wandsworth Jail. Binns has been practicing his craft in Newgate for some time on dummies, and it is said has exhibited great dexterity in handling ropes, all his operations being performed with confidence and skill. While possessed of no experience as a hangman, he is reported to have many qualifications for the office, the most being his personal coolness. In to-day's job there was no bungling. Powell was swung off cleverly and quickly, and the new executioner expressed himself as satisfied with his work. Public sale of Marwood's effects were concluded to-day. Hundreds of relic hunters from all parts of England attended, and at times bidding was very spirited. There was some disappointment expressed that among the articles for sale there were not more ropes, the taste of the crowd appearing to run in that direction. It seems, however, that the dead executioner had disposed of the majority of the ropes which had done service on noted criminals to his favorite friends. An old ragged valise in which Marwood used to carry his ropes to and from executions, sold for $6. A pair of old stockings, said to be the last pair Marwood wore, and which were taken from his body at death, brought $2. A gentleman in the crowd to whom Marwood had willed two favorite ropes allowed the auctioneer to put them up for sale, and they caused active bids, being finally knocked down for $20. The sale was very exciting but soon over.

Emmett's New Play.

BUFFALO, Nov. 7.—The Academy was crowded on the occasion of the first production of "Fritz, the Bohemian," the new play written for Joe Emmett by Thomas Kean, of the Buffalo Courier. The piece is a comedy-drama, with a prologue and three acts. It differs in all respects from Emmett's other plays, although he is enabled to introduce several of his captivating songs. The plot is ingeniously woven, and throughout is intensely interesting. Fritz is given a heroic attitude at the outset, and displays it until the end. During the performance he was repeatedly called before the curtain, and at the end of the second act Kean was accorded the same honor. With judicious pruning there is no doubt that Emmett has a piece far superior to his previous one. This being Mr. Kean's first effort, he naturally feels much elated at his evident success.

Jealous of the Americans.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—At a meeting of the exhibitors at the Fisheries Exhibition, which closed on the 31st of last month, several protests were made against what was said to be unfairness on the part of the judges in making the awards. The fault finding was directed principally against the liberality of the Judges toward the American exhibitors, which liberality is alleged to have been too much inspired by the partiality shown toward the American exhibitors by the Prince of Wales.

Judge McNamara on a Periodical.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Ex-Judge O. D. McNamara, the head of a respected family, has been creating much scandal at Frankfort. He appears to have been on a spree, and visited a notorious woman. Becoming jealous, he shot at a man he found in her company, and was shot at by the woman. The Judge barricaded his door and defied the law. The Sheriff is taking advice as to his right to force an entrance.

Must Await Their Turn.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 7.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is receiving letters of inquiry why claims of rebate tax paid on tobacco, snuff, and cigars have not been paid. All claims allowed have been sent to the Fifth Auditor General. No appropriation now exists for the payment of such claims, which must wait until the next Congress makes provision.

A Young Woman's Strange Confession.

ELIZ, Nov. 7.—Miss Jennie Jackson, the fascinating kleptomaniac, who was arrested for stealing dry goods and jewelry valued at several hundred dollars, created a sensation by confessing that Joseph Lawrence, a colored waiter in the Reed House, had enticed her from a rich home in Utica, N. Y., and ruined her. Lawrence denies the allegation.

The Lisbon Elections.

MADRID, Nov. 7.—The Portuguese Government has succeeded in carrying the Lisbon municipal elections, it is reported, by wholesale and open bribery on the part of Government officials. As much as $8 per vote was paid in numerous cases, and large amounts are said to have been spent in this way.

Factories Operated With Natural Gas.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—All the window-glass manufacturers have closed a contract with the Niagara Gas Company to supply their factories with natural gas. The company is now operating Washington county and expect to commence drilling a well immediately.

A Heavy Failure in Danville.

DANVILLE, Pa., Nov. 7.—The heaviest failure ever occurring here has been announced. It is that of Peter Baldy, Jr., the leading dry goods merchant. His liabilities are estimated at $112,000. Judgments to the amount of $45,000 have been confessed.

Heavy Verdict for Kilbourne.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—In the Kilbourne-Thompson case, damages for false imprisonment, which has been on trial for the past three days, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of Kilbourne for $60,000.

Cremation of Stock.

SIOUX FALLS, Dak., Nov. 7.—The lively stable of W. E. Wiley, with thirty-five horses, also a new $30,000 hotel, were destroyed by fire early this morning.

Death of Senator Randolph.

We hear it whispered round about
As something fresh and new,
That all the boys in the town
Are "going up their line."
This done, we hear, by little ears,
That come, you know, in packs,
And some of them contain six Queens,
And some contain six Jacks.

The late short horn sale at Lexington aggregated $30,000.

A new fence is being built around the public school building in the First Ward.

Rev. B. F. Cline, of Harrodsburg, will preach at the Christian Church this evening.

The street cars this winter will be supplied with stoves, and will be as comfortable as can be desired.

Col. J. M. Stockton, real estate agent, sold to-day, the cottage of James H.
Sweet, for $730, cash.

Dr. G. W. Martin's crop of sixteen acres of white burley tobacco was sold a day or two ago for $15 from the ground up. The crop was a very fine one.

Some one said to Dr. Henderson yesterday, "Doctor, I believe the boy can beat the old man proaching." The Doctor replied, "Good blood always improves on the cross."

The street cars have now been running a little less than three months and in that time something over 150,000 fares have been taken. Maysville, everything considered, is a better street railway town than Lexington.

The city council of Lexington has passed an ordinance favoring the establishment of water works, and has made a contract with the Holly Company to lay pipes, furnish fire plugs and water at a rental of $10,000 a year.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla works directly and promptly, to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves, and brace up the system. It is in the truest sense an alterative medicine.
Every invalid should give it a trial.

The Rev. F. J. Crisp, of Carrollton, Ky., will preach at the Brooksville Baptist Church next Sunday, the 11th inst.
The statement made in this paper several weeks ago that Mr. Crisp is a graduate of Spurgeon College was an error.

Rev. Harry Henderson, the young man now preaching for us, is a graduate of Vanderbilt University, and took the gold medal over 600 students for elocution some years ago. The house was full last night. Let everybody go tonight.

According to the report of the Ohio Bureau of Labor Statistics the earnings for the year of the average Cincinnati workingman amounted to $618, and the expenses of himself and family to $588.
The average earnings of the workmen of the State is placed at $649, and their average expenses at $560.

Mr. J. C. Owens, who has just returned from Pomeroy, says that at Ashland, yesterday, the Bostonians received one hundred and ninety-four packages of freight, consisting of chickens, eggs, sorghum, ginseng, beeswax, dried apples, dried peaches, dried beans, wool and feathers. All of this freight comes from the mountains by way of the Chattahoochee railroad, and comes in great quantities.

A social meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church will be held at the residence of Mr. Wm. H.
Wadsworth, Sr., on to-morrow (Friday) evening. All the friends of the congregation are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served free of charge.
Conveyances will be found at the door of the church to carry persons back and forth. Round trip 15 cents, children 10 cents.

Dr. J. T. Stroud has just had placed in his new house, one of the finest organs in the State of Kentucky. It is of the celebrated Clough & Warren manufacture, contains sixteen sets of reeds, with the most qualifying tubes and automatic swell, enabling the performer to gratify every caprice of fancy or taste.
When the soft stops are used the tone of this organ is extremely sweet, but when the full power is used it is perfectly grand. The cabinet work is of the pipe organ style, and a perfect gem of its kind. The instrument was ordered through Mr. L. F. Metzger, of the house of John Church & Co.

Monday Night.

We would suggest to our country friends that they form parties to attend the performance of "London Assurance" by the Chaffron company on next Monty like this presents itself to the theatre goers of this vicinity, and it should not be missed. Write or call on Harry Taylor, No. 22 Market street, for reserved seats as they are selling rapidly. It boro neighborhood was brought in last week but the trial resulted in proving that he knew crazy because he lives in Tollesboro.

the new Handy on her maiden trip. George Rosser will go along for ballast.

Bees for Boys.

American Agriculturist.
A farmer friend has sixty colonies of bees, a fine flock of light Brahmas fowls, and a farm of one hundred and twenty acres. He has two sons, aged thirteen and sixteen years respectively, and the elder boy has entire charge of the bees, of which he is very fond. He runs his sections, extracts the honey, introduces queens with a skill which many a veteran might envy. He is already well known in the city, three and one-half miles distant, for his honey, and talks about bees, and quotes authorities in the most intelligent manner. All his honey is sold in one grocery store, and though he has had a good yield this season, and has reaped a fine profit, he cannot fully supply the demand at the store.

How Negroes are Treated South.

The white people of Maysville have contributed money and labor, and have rebuilt the burned district in the negro suburb in that city. This is about the way in which the negro is deprived of his rights in the Southern States. It is his privilege to build a house and insure it for his own benefit, but the white man steps in, and with his usual impudent assertion of superiority takes all their business upon himself. No wonder the negro demands a civil rights law.

PARALYZED THROUGH FEAR.

A Married Woman Rendered Unconscious from a Supposed Assault.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Nov. 7.—Last Saturday evening, when Edward O'Neil, a quarryman, living near Bridgeport, returned to his home after work, he found in an outshed his wife half kneeling upon the floor, speechless and her eyes fixed. Her body was cold, and low breathing alone indicated that life still remained. She was carried into the house and a physician was summoned.

It was learned that several girls who had been walking in the same direction which Mrs. O'Neil took on Saturday evening, on her return from Bridgeport, after having made some purchases, had been followed by a burly looking ruffian and been almost frightened out of their wits. The supposition is that Mrs. O'Neil was assaulted by the villain and that great fright superinduced congestion of the brain.

Upon being treated for that malady she recovered somewhat from her stupor. She was able to enter a few words, but has no recollection of what transpired on her way home from Bridgeport. The muscles of the woman's limbs are less rigid and hopes are entertained of her recovery.

FIRE DAMP KILLS 100 MEN.

Explosion in an English Colliery—Unsuccessful Efforts to Rescue Survivors.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—News is just received of an explosion of fire damp in a colliery at Accrington, Lancashire, 19 miles north of Manchester. Large number of miners were working at the time, and it is believed 100 were killed. There is great excitement in the vicinity of the disaster. A large force of volunteers are attempting the rescue of those imprisoned, but as yet are unable to reach them.

Later Accrington dispatches state that 110 men were in the pit at the time of the explosion. Twenty, more or less injured, have been rescued. Great difficulty is found at the balance. It is not known how many are dead. Thousands of people surround the mouth of the pit.

Drowned While Trying to Save Another.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Captain of the Bremen steamship Maun yesterday reported to the police in Hoboken the particulars of the suicide of one of its passengers during the last trip across the Atlantic, and, in addition, gave an account of the drowning of one of the crew, who went to the unfortunate man's rescue. The ship had been four days out, when Carl Ziegler, a passenger, who had been much depressed since the vessel left port, sprang overboard. A boat was lowered and John Jurgens, in attempting to reach the suicide, fell overboard and was drowned. Jurgens was forty years of age, and leaves a widow and child in Germany.

Steel Trade Rumors.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—It was announced yesterday that the Lackawanna Iron Company of Scranton, Pa., had accepted a large contract for steel rails, cutting rates down to $35 per ton. Mr. Thomas Carnegie, of Edgar Thomson, was interviewed, and states that his mills will have to meet the cut now, but it will probably have the effect of causing a close down about the first of the year. This throws out over 4,000 men if the Edgar Thomson mills close. Carnegie takes a gloomy view of the future prospects of the steel trade.

Big Patent Case Pending.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 7.—Yesterday Mr. Jacob Reese refused to entertain the proposition of the Bessemer Steel Association for settling suits over the "Basic" process of steel making. The Pennsylvania Steel Company, at Harrisburg, have been using this process and were notified by Reese to stop infringement of his patents or he would bring suit. Philadelphia capitalists are backing Reese and a big legal fight will soon commence.

Mining by Electricity.

ASHLAND, Pa., Nov. 7.—A number of pillars in the Tunnel Colliery slope were run on Saturday night. Electricity was used in discharging the blast, and it was the first experiment of the kind ever proved successful in the anthracite coal region.

De Lesseps Coming.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Mr. De Lesseps is expected to arrive here, and extensive preparations have been made to receive him. It is arranged for the distinguished engineer to reply to the toast, "Our Foreign Guests," at the Lord Mayor's banquet, which will take place on the 9th inst.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, General Debility, Catarrh, and all disorders caused by a thin and impoverished, or corrupted, condition of the blood; expelling the blood-poisons from the system, enriching and renewing the blood, and restoring its vitalizing power.

During a long period of unparalleled usefulness, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proven its perfect adaptation to the cure of all diseases originating in poor blood and a weakened vitality. It is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron, and is the safest, most reliable, and most economical blood-purifier and blood-food that can be used.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.
"AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has cured me of the Inflammatory Rheumatism, with which I have suffered for many years." W. H. MOORE.
Durham, Ia., March 2, 1882.

"Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. I have not been troubled with the Rheumatism since. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public." E. F. HARRIS.
River St., Buckland, Mass., May 13, 1882.

"Last March I was so weak from general debility that I could not walk without help. Following the advice of a friend, I commenced taking AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and before I had used three bottles I felt as well as I ever did in my life. I have been at work now for two months, and think your SARSAPARILLA the greatest blood medicine in the world." JAMES MANNABY.
620 West 42d St., New York, July 19, 1882.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blisters, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It cleanses the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.
